"Look Out," alias Henry Hardy.
Who, nowithstanding his traitorous lotter, published daily in the Copper, is still retained as clerk in the interior Department, charges the city reporter of the Republican with circulating an summisgaled faisehood, in relation to the recent case of kiemapping. He has only to refer the public to the instimony in the cast. As for Mr. Hardy, the reporter has too myth self-respect to bandy words or epithets with a secessionist and apologist for negro stealing.

Maryland Avenue is now used by the Government more than any other thoroughfare in the city, especially in the night. And yet it is entirely destitute of gas light. Millions of dollars worth of provisions, forage, ammunition, &c., are now transported along that avenue cover to our army in Virginis, and it all is ny. cessarily done in the night. The loaded cars are often left standing for hours at a time in the "blackness of darkness" of these nights, affording an excellent opportunity for plundering from the Government, without the shadow of a "contract." We hope the attention of Congress will be called to this subject.

It is due also to the olitzens along that avenue, that some compensation should be given them for the inconvenience and annoyance which this railroad induces. For night is rendered alseptess, by the continual screaming and rumbling of the passing trains. Give the first proposed the called to the sake and dangerous by the Government from which they sak for MORE LIGHT.

Burned to Death.

Two colored girls, employed as domestics in Mrs. Ferris's boarding house, on Missouri avenue, between Third and Four-and-s-half streets, on Friday night fell saleep in their room, leaving the light burning. About 12 o'clock, one of the girls was aroused from her sleep by the loud cries of her companion, whom she found to be in flames. She immediately rushed towards her suffering companion and tried to extinguish the dames, and in doing so was burned very badly. She succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not before the poor girl was so badly burned as to render her renovery impossible. Although every means were applied for the alleviation of her sufferings, she died, in great agony, on Saturday evenings.

Cantersusy...This, the last week of the Leoni Pantomime Company, has, so far, if possible, been more successful than their first week. To night, in addition to the already large company. Mr. Tony Pastor makes his drst appearance. He has created a great sensation in New York, for the last we've months. He is one of the very best comic aingers on the American stage. His engagement is for four nights only. Go and hear him. This afternoon a matince for ladies and children, with any quantity of presents.

"Sisce Meat Too Good," etc.
William Smith (colored) and James Cavesaugh (white) were arrested, yesterday afternoon, by Officer Leach, on any picton of stealing a number of sheep tongues, which they were endeavoring to dispose of along the Avenue.
The officer thought that "sheep meat was too good for niggars," and therefore took them to the guardhouse. The tongues were afterwards discovered to have been stelen from Mrs. Chus.

Criminal Court.

Yesterday morning, in the case of Albert C. Ward, indicted for highway rubbery and attempting to kill charles Matthews, District Atterney Carrington addressed the jury at considerable length, after which certain intructions to the jury were prayed by Mr. Fendall, counsel for the prisoner. The case was then given to the jury, who re-turned a verdict of guilty.

Some weeks ago, a man who gave his name as John Brown, and who had been confined in the Old Capitol prison as a rebel spy, was taken sick; and removed to the Union Hospital, at Boorgetown, where he died in a few days. He was a gavileman of education and of polished manbers, and suit he was an Englishman. A a sert time before he died, he requested a letter to be written to his sister, Ditas Bealn, addressed to the care of C. H. Orr, Esq., President of the Springsleid, Mount Vernon and Pittaburg Bailroad, Springsleid, Ohio, which has been done. After death, a testiment was found under his head, with the name, "John W. Burson, Loudout Co., Va., Nov. 7th, 1881," neatly written upon one of the fly leaves, whence it is inferred that his name was Burson, instead of Brown.

A few days ago, ome of the children at the hospital were playing with the hat of the deceased, when they discovered a paper under the lining, which proved to be a check for $600, on a New Orleans bank, payable to the order of John Brown. By order of D. Malaren, this check was sent to his sister, in Ohio.
